THE ART OF RALPH BAKSHI

AUCTION OCTOBER 18 - NOVEMBER 9
ONLINE ONLY

PLUS: HEAVY TRAFFIC, COONSKIN, COOL WORLD, FIRE AND ICE, AMERICAN POP, HEY GOOD LOOKIN', MIGHTY MOUSE & MORE

This auction features an unprecedented collection of Ralph Bakshi's artwork from his often controversial, but undeniably, groundbreaking career. There are over 200 lots highlighting works from Fritz the Cat, Wizards, Lord of the Rings, Coonskin, Cool World, Heavy Traffic, Hey Good Lookin', American Pop, and more—many originally acquired from Bakshi's personal collection.

In addition to original sketches, production drawings and animation cels, promotional materials for the aforementioned films are included in this exciting offering. Works from The Nine Lives of Fritz the Cat are also in the mix. Although Bakshi did not work on Nine Lives, that film was clearly inspired by Bakshi and would not have come into being without the original Fritz film.

This is the first time that Bakshi's art has been assembled in this large a capacity and offered for sale. In particular, original Fritz the Cat cels are extremely rare. Blacksparrow is pleased to be the caretaker for this single-owner collection.

1. ORIGINAL DRAWING OF FRITZ THE CAT BY MILT GRAY. Original drawing of Fritz the Cat reading comics, measuring approximately 8.5 in x 8 in. and the Fritz measuring approximately 5 in. x 5 in. Addressed to Pacific Comics and signed by Milt Gray, an animator on Fritz the Cat, with apologies to R. Crumb. In fine condition. STARTING AT $100

2. ORIGINAL PRODUCTION CEL OF FRITZ FROM FRITZ THE CAT. (Bakshi Productions, 1972) Hand painted production cel of Fritz walking despondently, measuring 10.5 in. x 12.5 in. with Fritz's image measuring approximately 3 in x 3 in. In fine condition. Accompanied by a certificate of authenticity from the Howard Lowery Gallery. STARTING AT $100

3. ORIGINAL MODEL CEL OF BERTHA FROM FRITZ THE CAT. (Bakshi Productions, 1972) Hand drawn model cel of Big Bertha from Fritz the Cat in black and purple ink, measuring 10.5 in x 12.5 in. with Bertha's image measuring 5 in x 3.5 in. In fine condition. STARTING AT $200

4. ORIGINAL PRODUCTION CEL OF POLICE PIGS FROM FRITZ THE CAT. (Bakshi Productions, 1974) Hand painted production cel of four police pigs running towards the camera, trimmed to measure 7 in. x 9.5 in. with the image of the pigs measuring approximately 3.5 in x 7 in. In fine condition. Accompanied by a certificate of authenticity from the Howard Lowery Gallery. STARTING AT $100

5. ORIGINAL MULTI-CEL PRODUCTION SETUP OF THREE GIRLS FROM FRITZ THE CAT. (Bakshi Productions, 1972) Hand painted two-cel production setup of three girls in the park, measuring 10.5 in. x 12.5 in. and presented on a laser color background. The image of the girls measures approximately 5 in x 4 in. In fine condition. STARTING AT $200

6. ORIGINAL COLOR MODEL CEL OF FRITZ FROM FRITZ THE CAT. (Bakshi Productions, 1972) Matted black ink line drawing color model cel featuring Fritz, measuring 17 in. x 14 in. with Fritz's image measuring approximately 5 in. x 7 in. Accompanied by a certificate of authenticity from Gallery Lainzberg. In fine condition. STARTING AT $200

7. ORIGINAL PRODUCTION CEL OF FRITZ AND A FEMALE CAT FROM FRITZ THE CAT. (Bakshi Productions, 1972) Matted hand painted production cel featuring Fritz groping a female cat, measuring 12.5 in. x 15.25 in. with the image measuring approximately 3.5 in. x 6.5 in. In fine condition. STARTING AT $200

9. ORIGINAL FRITZ THE CAT MULTI-CEL SETUP WITH PRODUCTION BACKGROUND. (Bakshi Productions, 1972) Hand inked four-cel setup with original hand painted production watercolor background. The entire setup measures 14 in. x 10.5 in. Fritz's image size is 5.5 in. x 5.5 in. Original multi-cel setups with production backgrounds from this raunchy animation feature are extremely rare to find. This is the most important scene in the film in which Fritz jumps on top of a car in front of Ace's Bar and yells "REVOLT" to the crowd assembled. Based on Robert Crumb's comic strip of the same name, Fritz the Cat was Ralph Bakshi's controversial feature film debut and it received a X-rating, the first for an animation film. It remains the most successful independent animated feature of all time, grossing over $100 million worldwide. In fine condition. STARTING AT $3,000

10. SET OF NINETEEN STILLS FROM FRITZ THE CAT. (Bakshi Productions, 1972) Set of nineteen black and white photo stills from Fritz the Cat on heavy glossy paper, measuring 8 in. x 10 in. In fine condition. STARTING AT $50

First is a Cinemation Industries small promotional poster for upcoming films, including Fritz the Cat, measuring 12 in. x 9 in. and in fine condition. Also included is an original poster for Fritz the Cat and it's sequel, The Nine Lives of Fritz the Cat, measuring 41 in. x 27 in. and stored folded. Slight signs of wear visible along the creases, otherwise in fine condition. Also included is a Spanish language lobby card for Fritz the Cat, measuring 9.5 in. x 14 in. The last item is a copy of the August 1972 edition of Continental Film Review Magazine featuring a review of Fritz the Cat. STARTING AT $100

12. THE PEOPLE'S COMICS FIRST PRINTING. (Kitchen Sink Enterprises, 1972) Complete first printing of The People's Comics, a collection of comics entirely by R. Crumb. People's Comics contains a few semi- autobiographical shorts but, most notably, this comic contains "Fritz the Cat, Superstar," in which Crumb had Fritz killed. Crumb made this 15 page comic, his first Fritz comic in almost four years, in response to the Fritz the Cat film, which he loathed. Fritz appears as a movie star who spends a day partying and meeting with film and television executives named "Ralphy" and "Stevie," a direct dig at Ralph Bakshi and Steve Krantz, before an ex-girlfriend pierces his skull with an ice pick, killing him and ending any possibilities of future comics featuring one of Crumb's most popular characters. Has full color covers, black and white interiors, all 24 pages, and measures approximately 10 in. x 7 in. In fine condition. STARTING AT $50

13. ORIGINAL PRODUCTION DRAWING FROM HEAVY TRAFFIC. (Steve Krantz Productions, 1973) This original production drawing features Rosa. Drawn in graphite on 10.5 in. x 12.5 in animation paper.
